

THE IPS ZERO EXCLUSION COMMITTEE INVITES YOU TO JOIN

A WEBINAR ON IMMIGRATION

Many IPS programs serve individuals who come from diverse backgrounds, who enrich our communities with their unique strengths, talents, history, lived experiences, and vibrant culture. This session will focus on how we can accompany asylees and refugees on their journey to safety.

Guest Speaker: Kimberly Boche, Supervising Attorney for The Advocates for Human Rights' Refugee & Immigrant Program in Minneapolis, MN.

WED, AUGUST 12, 2026

11:00 AM - 12:30 PM Eastern Standard Time (U.S.)

Please adjust your time zones accordingly

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the U.S. immigration system: myths vs. realities
- Describe the legal definition of a refugee and the key stages of the asylum process
- Recognize the trauma survivors experience and the benefits that support their healing
- Identify ways to advocate for and support asylees and refugees
